

Invitation - 'Seeing Asylum' Exhibition

Venue: St Aidan's Church, Elford Place, Leeds, LS8 5QD

Schedule

21st June 2022

3pm - Exhibition opens

4pm - Public Lecture on Women and Asylum by Dr Victoria Canning, Senior Lecturer at University of Bristol

5pm Workshop using Victoria's Asylum Navigation Board

6pm - Meal (all welcome please book on to this)

7.30pm Allerton Deanery Service

Leeds Church Institute and Leeds Beckett University welcome you to the 'Seeing Asylum' Exhibition. This experiential exhibition of stories is composed by those impacted by the asylum process. This immersive exhibition is told through the lived experience of those in, affected and supporting individuals with opportunity to take part, as well as to observe and listen to those who relay their experiences against oppression, trauma and struggle.

Join us for a powerful, visual, and vocal representation of the lived experience of 'Seeing Asylum'.

RSVP - events@leedschurchinstitute.org

General exhibition viewing will take place till 25th June

www.LCILEeds.org | @LCILEeds

